AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION .- After the closing of our yesterday's report, the resolutions accepting the apologies of Drs. Reese and Bryan were reconsidered and referred-after considera ble debate and much excitement-to the committee of the whole, Dr. Edwards occupying the

A memorial from the Philadelphia county Medical Society, giving a detailed account of the McClintock case was read. McClintock, it appears, had been expelled from the association for selling quack nostrums, after which Drs. Reese and Bryan had given certificates of his fitness for the charge of Blockley Hospital, Philadelphia. After the adoption or a rule limiting all speeches, save Dr. Reese's reply to the memorial, to five minutes-Dr. Reese said the apology offered vesterday was the fruit of what he understood to be an arrangement between certain of his friends and the gentlemen having charge of this memorial [This was pronounced false] He had signed the paper recommending Dr. McClintock without thought, and because of the necessitous condition of Dr. McC.'s family. The idea that he whose whole life had been a crusade against nos-trums and quacks, he who had even broken off friendship with McClintock because of his connexion with the matter, being in any way compromised with nostrum vending, needed nothing more to confute it than that he should mention it in the presence of this assembly where he was known. [Applause.] He had gone as far in apology as his friends thought proper, and was willing to go as far as an honest man could. It was perfectly plain that he had been misled, because the action as now taken placed him in the position of introducing the matter. He left it to the meeting to judge how far the contract had been fulfilled by the other side.

A motion to refer the matter to a committee of seven having been made by Dr. Atkinson, it was opposed by Dr. A'Lee, of Penna., who said that upon the action of the Association in this case depended the continuance of many of its members in connection with it.

Dr. Payne, of Va., told, in illustration, of two Virginians-a storekeeper and a lawyer-both of them Quakers and members of a temperance society. The lawyer would take a little on the sty and when, on one occasion the storekeeper had given a poor fellow a glass of brandy, and was brought up to be censured for it by the society, the lawyer did thesensuring. Rousing himselfto his full height, and looking at the culprit before him, his censure ran thus: "Jeems, thee should be more circumspect." Dr. Payne thought Dr. Reese should be more circumspect, and that his applogy should be accepted.

Dr. Contie, of Pa , wished to make a statement; but was interrupted by Dr. Bowling, of Tenn . who made an explanation of why he induced Dr Reese to make the apology. He said that certain gentlemen from Philadelphia had told him that if the Dr. made that apology the subject would be dropped. The debate was continued very warmly between Drs. Contie, Cox, La Roche, Payne, Jewell, Davis, and others; and at its conclusion, Dr. Reese offered an apology, when the committee rose and reported his apology satisfactory, and recommended its acceptance by the Association. Dr. Lindsley, President, resumed the Chair, and the report was adopted.

Dr. Reese then read an apology, which was declared by some members insufficient, because it did not contain the word "regret." For awhile Dr. R. refused to insert it, and much confusion ensued. At length the matter was settled by the unanimous acceptance of the following apology, in which Dr. Bryan joined Dr. Reese. The undersigned regrets that he certified to the professional qualifications for Blockley Hospital, Philadelphia, of an expelled member of this body; and hereby offers this apology for his departure from the ethical code."

The chair announced that the Pennsylvania, the Wilmington and Manchester, the Illinois Central, the Richmond and Petersburg, and the S. C. Northeast Railroad Companies would only charge fare for delegates one way And at fifteen minutes to four o'clock the Asseciation adjourned until this morning.

Meeting opened at 91/4 o'clock. The papers of the Secretary now being present, the reading of the minutes of yesterday was deferred.

On motion of Dr. Foster, of Tenn , the reports and communications of the committees on medical topography and epidemics were referred. without reading, to the committee on publication; an amendment that before reference the call be made upon the State committees for their reports, having been rejected.

Dr Grant, of N. Y , asked leave to present a complaint against the New York Medical College, but upon information by Dr. Edwards that a committee on ethics would be recommended by the nominating committee, he withdrew his

The minutes were then read. Several propoeals to amend them were made, and either ruled out of order or withdrawn.

The appointment during last year of Dr. Geo. Haywood, of Boston, as a delegate to represent the American Medical Association in kindred societies in Europe was announced by Dr. Ere. The deaths of Drs. Marshall Hall, T. Y. Simmons and David Walton were announced.

The committee to whom was referred the subject of a Convention of Medical College, reported the following preamble and resolutions, through their chairman, Dr. S D. Gross : The committee to whom was referred the reso lutions appended to the report of the special com mitte on Medical College, have adopted the following preamble and resolution : Fully appreciating the value and importance of the resolution under which they were appointed, but a majority of the gentlemen constituting this committee not being authorized by the medical faculties of the several colleges with which we are connected to act as their representatives in this maiter, and therefore regarding it quite impossible to secure a convention of delegates in the interim of the meetings of the Association; Resolved. That we recommend to all the medical colleges entitled to a representation in this body, that they appoint delegates, especially instructed to represent them in a meeting to be held at Louisville on Monday, the day immediately preceding the convention of the American Medical Association for the year 1859, at ten o'clock, at such place as the committee of arrangements shall designate. The reports of special committees for 1858 com ing up as the order of the day—

Dr. J. Foster Jenkins of New York, read a most interesting report on "Spontaneous Umbilical Hemorrhage of the Newly Born," which was succeeded by the reading of a report of the most important character on the "Influence of Marriages of Consanguinity upon Oilsprings," from the pen of Dr. S. M. Benniss, of Ky.

Dr. J. L. Atlee, from the committee on paring a stone for presentation to the Washing ton National Monument, report that the stone had been prepared of Vermont marble, with a relievo represention of Hippocrates refusing the presents of the Persian king, Artaxerx-s, and the inscription "Vinat Amor Patria" The whole the work of a young native artist, J. Augustus Beck, of Leigh. Pa

Dr Palmer read an abstract of the report of Dr E. Andrews, of III, on "The functions of dif-ferent portions of the cerebellum." Dr. Campbell read the abstract of a report on the "Nervous concomitants of febrile diseases;" which went to the committee on publication.

Dr. J. Marion Sims, of N. Y., illustrated his report on the "Treatment of the results of obstructed labor" by charts; which caused the lady auditors to vacate the gallery. This was a most interesting report, and was listened to with profound attention, and at its conclusion was greeted with loud applause.

Dr. Mark Stevenson, of N. Y., submitted his report on " The treatment best adapted to each variety of cataract, with the method of operation, place, time, &c.; which he accompanied by the exhibition of illustrative drawings.

CENTRE MARKET. The late rains have left the roads in rather an unfavorable condition for wagons heavily loaded, and so the attendance of country dealers at the market was not as large as usual The demand was not very brisk this morning, and the supply was ample and of excellent quality. In the fish market, shad were selling for 25550 cents per pair; large rock $1582 each; small fish ISa25 cents per bunch. The hav stands were occupied, the prices ranging from 75 cents to $1.10 per cwt. The gangways were in good condition, and good order was preserved during market hours.

THE PRAYER MRETINGS - Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather yesterday a large congregation attended the services. They were participated in by the Rev. Messrs. Finckel, Noole, Dr. Kingsford and others This week seems to have been one of the most interesting. At night, also, the attendance at the Young Men's meeting was large, when Rev Mr. Granberry, of "Behold ! now is the accepted time."

TRUSTERS OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS .- The regular nonthly meeting of the Board of Trustees of Public Schools, was held at the session room of the Board of Aldermen, City Hall, yesterday afternoon at 4% o'clock. Present Col. Randolph, the President; Ro. Rickets, Secretary; Messrs Chapin, White, Walsh, Ironside, Wilson, Van Santford, Bacon and Price.

The Board came to order, and after the reading of the minutes of the preceding meeting, and their adoption, abstracts of monthly reports were read from the teachers of the various schools. A communication was received from Jas. F. Haliday informing the trustees of the want of room in the Washington Library, now occupied by primary school No. 1, first district. Mr. Ironsides offered the following resolution Resolved, Resolved that the sub-board of the first district be authorized to submit to the Board of Aldermen and the Board of Common Council the proposition of Rev. F. Morrison, relative to the sale of lot in square 218 for the accommodation of primary school No. 3, together with the estimates for the proposed addition to the house;

Sundry bills were duly certified and ordered to be paid. Dr. Ironside, from the committee on the annual examination, submitted a programme, to be observed during the examination, as follows :

PREMIUMS 1st. Silver medal to best scholar in each school or department of school. General conduct, punctuality, and improvement within the year, will be taken into consideration in this award.

2d. One premium in each class, for attention to study and general improvement. 3d. One premium in each class, for exemplary

4th. One premium to each pupil who has been punctually present every school day throughout the year. 5th. In addition to the above, diplomas will be awarded for general or special merit, not to exceed five to each school or department of school. Teachers are not allowed to present premiums at the public distribution.

The teacher of each primary school will furnish the examiner or examiners with a list of the premium pupils as soon as practicable after the examination; and the teachers of district schools will furnish the sub-boards of their district with similar information, for transmission to the general board

The Secretary and Treasurer of the Board are authorized to procure the medals, diplomas, and books for premiums; to have the diplomas filled up, and the books suitably inscribed and forward them to the sub-Boards of the different districts in sufficient time for a deposite with the teachers previous to the day of distribution. The books must be free from political or sectarian tendency

The school to be examined will assemble at one o'clock, p. m., for examination; and the exercises will commence at 2% o'clock. Where more than one department assemble in the same room, the department not for examination on that day will meet at the usual hour and be dismissed at one o'clock.

The following resolution was submitted and unanimously adopted: Resolved, That the committee of arrangements be requested to invite the faculties of Georgetown and Columbian Colleges, to conduct the examination of the select classes on Thursday, July 15th, and Friday, July 16th, at the Smithsonian Institution. Mr. Bacon submitted the names of Miss Cathrine Murphy, and Miss Martha V. Fletcher, as having passed a good examination, either of whom were well qualified to be elected to the place of assistant of primary school No. 3, Second District, recently instituted. Miss Fletcher being a graduate of the public schools of Washington, was elected, though both were equally recommended. Mr White here introduced to the Board Prof Donaldson, a blind lecturer on the subject of education, who made some brief remarks in relation to the subject of educating the blind, as well as some general remarks upon the subject of systematic education. He proposed to visit the public schools of this city and to lecture before such of them as might feet disposed to understand his system.

On motion, permission was given him to visit the schools for said object. The Board then adjourned.

SEVENTH WARD PUBLIC MEETING .- At a meeting in the Seventh Ward, Wednesday evening, irrespective of party, P. M. Pearson was called to the chair, J. Van Riswick appointed secretary The object of the meeting being stated, to nominate an independent ticket for one Alderman, three Councilmen and one Assessor, Mr. J. Van Riswick was nominated for Alderman, but declined; Mr. Chas. Polton was nominated for reelection to the Council, but also declined; Mr. A. Clarke was also nominated for Council and declined, giving as a reason for so doing that he had identified himself with another party. The following ticket was then unanimously nominated: For Alderman-P. M. Pearson; Common Council-Thos. E. Lloyd, Chas. Wilson, Thos. E. Milstead ; Assessor-John H. Bird.

CRIMINAL COURT - Yesterday, in this Court, John Hughes was tried for stealing, on or about lasr Christmas, eight five dollar notes, one twenty-dollar gold piece, four two-dollar-and-a-half gold pieces, three gold dollars, one fifty-cent piece, and one pocket book, valued at one dollar, from Patrick Hand. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty as indicted. Sentenced to two years' imprisonment in the Penitentiary of the District of Columbia. The Court then adjourned until Friday at ten o'clock, a. m. The case of Williams and Barret for assault and battery with intent to kill Messrs. Entwisle and Lewis on Capitol Hill is set for trial on Friday.

AN OBJECT OF PITY .- This morning, a poor lad, about eleven years old, miserably clad, ap plied to Justice Donn, to be sent to the work house as a vagrant. He was evidently very sick, and his symptoms were those of scarlet fever He gave his name as Thomas Connor; that he lived with his brother at the Water Works; but his brother had driven him away; and now that he was very sick and no one would take him into a family, he thought the workhouse was the best place he could go to, until he gets well enough to find a place of employment elsewhere. He was sent down for ninety days.

DEAR. GOOD PUBLIC, do not forget Carusi's suthe South church, preached an able sermon from | perb May Ball that is to be at the Assembly Rooms, on Monday night next,

A MAY BALL .- The May ball of the season was that of M. Gaszynski and daughter, at Temperance Hall, on E street, last evening. It was, in reality, a most brilliant affair, where was assemsembled a rare association of beauty, grace, talent and wit-one of these peculiarly happy festive occasions where-

Soft eyes looked love to eyes that spake again And all went merry as a marriage-bell !" We will not pretend to enumerate the distinguished guests, for the company embraced a large number of the elite and fashionable among our citizens and temporary residents Conspicuous in the assembly, however, we observed our venerable Chief Magistrate, President Buchanan, whose countenance was radiant with good humor and gratification. Senator Clay, also, embraced the occasion to escape for awhile from the onerous duties of a legislator, and with his accomplished lady, to mingle in this scene of enjoyment. Hon. C. J. Faulkner and his lady were also among the guests, and their beautiful daughter was the "Queen" of the occasion. But we shall proceed no farther in naming those present, as a description of the scene will be more interesting to our readers.

The throne was picturesque in the extreme being beautifully adorned with flowers, and in the centre of the arch surmounted by a large painting of President Buchanan, tastefully encircled with a wreath of roses The Queen of May Miss Faulkner) was the exact personification of the character she sustained-a queen in ev. r sense of the word. About fifteen years of age, and very beautiful, she was the observed of all observers She was simply dressed, in a white satin boddice and skirt, over which was thrown a covering of cloud like illusion, giving her a weird or fairy-like appearance; her head was ornamented with a wreath of simple white flowers, a halo of innocent loveliness. Her maids of honor (Misses Mason and Wilson) were two Hebes; their maids of honor, in their turn, were in perfect keeping with the rest. On either side of the throne was a page, mounting a golden staff, the guardians of "majesty." Seated around were the faithful subjects of the floral court, all appropriately dressed, and all rendering spontane ius homage to their royal mistress. The fancy dancers were generally very young children, but they performed their parts respectively with so great skill and accuracy as to enable us to assert, with truth, that these exercises were among the best of their description we have ever witnessed. Among those worthy of special notice were the "Highland Fling," by Miss Orsina Van Camp; "Sailors Hornpipe," b Master Guthrie; "Cracovienne," by Miss Guthrie; "La Satteralla," by Miss A. Poulton; " Cachuca," by Miss Welch; "Pas Seul, los Guerrillas," by the same; and several others, of which we have only omitted honorable mention because we have forgotten the names of the performers. But the crowning performance of the whole was by Miss Juliette Visser, a "Grand Medley of all Nations," the performance of which was full of grace and fairy-like posturing, and was rewarded at its close by a bevy of boquets from the spectators. Let us not also forget to mention "La Varsovienne," by Misses I. and C. Maynard, two little atomies who attracted much admiration by their infantile grace and skill.

A plain Cotillon Polka Quadrille, "Les Lancers," by all the pupils, wound up the fancy dancing, and then the floor was cleared for the benefit of the "children of a larger growth," who took the place of the little ones, and then the dance went on; and when we left the gay scene, there was every disposition on the part of the company to keep it up "till morning."

A Suggestion .- The Medical Convention has not yet decided what curative remedies should be applied, to free our city of the desperadors that have so long rendered life and property in secure. Philbrick suggests, place plenty of good books in their hands, and he will give them presents to induce them to read; if that should prove a remedy they must be without the pale of civilization. THE COLLEGE EXHIBITION -The exhibition of the junior class of Columbian College, to come the Smithsonian Institution, is destined to be a brilliant affair. Thousands of the beauty, fashion and literary taste at this time congregated in the Federal metropolis will surely attend. POLICE REPORTS .- The police officers reported to the Chief of Police fifty cases during the

A CORRECTION.—The undersigned perceiving in the States newspaper of Tuesday, the 4th instant, a local paragraph headed "More Outliwry," which reflects on them, respectfully state to the public that it is entirely destitute of touth, so far as it casts aspersions on the manner in which they conduet their well-known Pleasure Gardens on Capitol

Hill. The "States" paragraph is as follows:
"Yesterday was the opening of Humphrey &
Junemann's lager beer saloon, on Capitor Hill, and the beverage, to judge of its effects, must have been beyond the standard strength allowed by law; for, in more than one instance, those who partook of it, if not 'part:ally s.ewed,' forgot the dignity of gentlemen.

Now, the truth is, no person became intoxicated in or on their premises. A young man came there int xicated, and before he reached the saloon the police employed became aware of the fact, and promptly removed him entirely beyond the inclosure It is due to the reputation of thei well-known rleasure Gardens that these facts should, under the circumstances, be known; the statement they refute, being, as the undersigned are well aware, the result of malice on the part of a person representing himself an employee of the States office HUMPHREYS & JUENEMANN.

THE WONDERFUL SUCCESS of Dr Hostetter's celeleated and unrivalled Stomach Bitters, from the time of its introduction to the public, proves conclusively its manifest superiorty over any other preparation of the kind now manufactured. Its action on the digestive organs is of the most pleasing charac ter, removing all diseases or morbidity, and giving the system a sound and healthy tone. In cures of Dyspepsia, loss of appetite, general mental or physical weakness, its operation is most beneficient, in-deed, some of the most direful cases that have ever been under medical treatment have been entirely cused by this great agent. Correspondence of The Star.

GEORGETOWN, May 6, 1858. We feel extremely obliged to a friend for his timely suggestion in regard to a union celebration of the Sabbath Schools of our city, on the approaching fourth of July, and we now throw out the suggestion in time to give the managers of them an opportunity to consider the matter and make the necessary preparations should they think proper to return again on our approaching national anniversary, to the former good old plan of celebrating the day. The objection to a union celebration for several years past has been the difficulty in obtaining a place suitable for the purpose. We think if the proper steps are taken in the proper quarter a place can be had to which

A large number of the medical gentlemen in attendance at the Medical Convention in your city came over among us, yesterday, and after visiting several of the physicians of our city, re-paired to the Georgetown College, where they were cordially received by the President, Rev. B. A Maguire, and entertained in the most hospitable manner. Officers Kitchen and Gross arrested, yesterday G. W. alias Asbury Lansdale, colored, charged with having robbed the premises of Senator Trumbull, in your city. A portion of the money said to have been stolen was found upon his person. He was lodged in the watch-house. He was taken before Justice Reaver this morning and committed to jail for a further hearing. He is also charged with stealing a parcel of silver plate, &c., and various other articles. The entire length of the line of the C. & O Canal is reported this morning to be in excellent navigable order. Since our report of Saturday 47 boats have arrived, 37 of them from Cumber land, bringing about 3,300 tons of coal for the American and Detmold Companies The remainder from other points with flour, lime-stone, wood, &c. We learn that Mr. Brengle, the President of the Company, is making strenuous efforts to raise the means necessary to meet the claims of the late officers of the Company.
